23 September 2005

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Debbie Schachner, AWE Foundation

AWE Foundation (formerly known as Project WISH- Water is Here) was founded by Catholic lay-missionary, Daniel Pappalardo, who lived in El Progreso, El Salvador from 2001 to 2004. While living in the village, he became aware of the many needs of the people in developing countries- especially those in rural areas. He now understands that poverty is much more complex than he had ever imagined. Even though it may never be possible to totally eradicate poverty, he believes it can be minimized because he has seen it happen in El Progreso. He has learned that by promoting key areas of development such as water and education, some can escape physical and mental poverty...
