RENO SOUTH ROTARY A TASTE OF RENO-TAHOE

Welcome Friends and Sunday Brunchers:

This is our third year sponsoring and holding the spectacular World's Best Sunday Brunch called A Taste of Reno-Tahoe at Idlewild Park, Sunday June 4th, 12:30-4:30.

We've improved our annual fund raiser to the height of excellence and we'd like to invite you to enjoy wonderful samples of food and wine, hand crafted beer and perfect Crystal Springs Water delivered by some of the regions best chefs and culinary talent and wine makers.

Reno South Rotary is working to surpass last years excellent event by giving you the opportunity to enjoy scrumptious food, delicious wine and beer or water with a relaxed stroll beside the Truckee River, viewing wonderful contemporary art and music by live entertainment.

Don't miss a chance to win a fully paid trip to Hawaii for two! Other fine raffle and drawing prizes will be available.

Welcome to New Member - Carol Martin being inducted into Reno Sunrise by RI President Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar at the District Conference

District 5190
2006-2007 Rotary Academy Course
Now Available

What is it?

The Rotary Academy is a comprehensive study of the Rotary Club and Rotary International. It is a 10-lesson correspondence course covering the essential points of Rotary.

Who should take the course?

2007-2008 Club Presidents

This Course will provide information which will help the Presidents build their committee team and it will provide information to help them have a better learning experience at PETS.

2008-2009 Club Presidents

This is an ideal time for those filling this position to take the course. They will have a much better conception how Rotary works before they start to build a team for their year.

First Year Board Members

The knowledge gained will help during the first year on the board, and they will be particularly well-trained for their next two years of service.

All Club Members

Any Rotarian who aspires to a leadership position should take this course.

All Club Members

Any Rotarian who wishes to have a real knowledge of the workings of Rotary should take this course.

How to Register

The club now has the Registration Forms which show the title of each of the 10 lessons. The cost of the course is $75.00.
