Mike's Message

FORTY-FOUR "MILES TO GO"

Greetings Rotarians,

It's time to refresh your minds. Now that we have started to keep track of your efforts, let me remind you that the "FOUR WAY TEST APPLIES" if you bring a guest please make sure you check them in so you get credit for them. The first week of September we will be posting scores. Now lets get busy and get some guests and the rest will take care of itself. And Please Have Fun!

The teams are listed on back page. Mark has "free breakfast cards" if you are out! It's time to introduce our friends to Sunrise Rotary with breakfast.

1. You and your team get 10 points for every guest you bring to our breakfast meeting.
2. You and your team get 50 points for every new member you sponsor
3. Contest is from August 1st- January 31st.

4. Team leader is High-Lighted

Remember: Rotary is in our hands. We get out of it, just what we put in. So let's put our all into it and let's have fun doing it.

Regards in Rotary,

President Mike

This Week's Program

Bob Piechocki Nevada Humanities Young Chautauqua and Special Guests

Nevada Humanities Young Chautauqua is entering it's 17th year. Formed in Reno in 1993, this award winning youth organization was the first of its kind in the country. There are now 13 states that have Young Chautauqua programs; all formed using the Reno model.

Young Chautauqua Co-director, Bob Piechocki, will discuss the Young Chautauqua program. Young Chautauquans will perform brief presentations including Q&A. Appearing will be humorist and author Samuel Clemens performed by Joey Grimes and Alice Roosevelt, the daughter of President Theodore Roosevelt performed by Julian Guy.

Joey Grimes will be a 7th grader at Mountain View Montessori School. He studies the piano, guitar and saxophone. He is a member of the Reno Youth Jazz Orchestra and St. Rose of Lima Choir. This is Joey's third year in Young Chautauqua. He has portrayed General Douglas MacArthur and the young Samuel Clemens.

Julian Guy is a first-year Chautauquan. She will be entering seventh grade at Swope Middle School this fall. Julian loves to play soccer, go to the beach with friends, family outings, basketball, baseball, swimming, and just playing. Julie says that when she grows up she wants to be a Mythbuster, Stormchaser, or engineer.

ROTARY.ORG

By Martha Greene

Have you visited the Rotary International website lately?

The home page is divided into News and Announcements. There's a search box too.

There are tabs called "about us", "contribute", "Students and youth", "members" and "media and news".

There are sections headed news, announcements and highlights. You can also sign up for a RSS feed into your e-mail account.

The Club Locator on the website has almost eliminated the need for the printed club directory. You can search by district number, country or city or town name.

The Rotary website even has a place to increase the font size. This is helpful for those of us who need some extra help.

Take a look at www.rotary.org. It's time well spent.

The Sponsor of a New Member

The bylaws of Rotary clearly outline the procedure for proposing someone for Rotary club membership.

The "proposer" or sponsor is the key person in the growth and advancement of Rotary. Without a sponsor, an individual will never have the opportunity to become a Rotarian. Individuals must be asked to join Rotary; thus, it is every member's responsibility to identify and invite prospective members.

The task of the sponsor should not end merely by submitting a name to the club secretary or membership committee. Rotary has not established formal responsibilities for sponsors; however, these procedures are recommended in many clubs.

The sponsor should

- ❑ Invite a prospective member to several meetings prior to proposing the individual for membership
- ❑ Accompany the prospective new member to one or more orientation/informational meetings
- ❑ Introduce the new member to other club members each week for the first month
- ❑ Encourage the new member to become involved in any club service projects underway
- ❑ Invite the new member to attend meetings of the Interact or Rotaract clubs sponsored by the club
- ❑ Provide opportunities for the new member to get involved in international program efforts, such as Group Study Exchange or Youth Exchange
- ❑ Invite the new member to accompany the sponsor to neighboring clubs for the first make-up meeting to learn the process and observe the spirit of friendship
- ❑ Ask the new member and spouse to accompany the sponsor to the club's social activities, dinners, or other special occasions
- ❑ Urge the new member and spouse to attend the district conference with the sponsor
- ❑ Serve as a special friend to assure that the new member becomes an active Rotarian

When a new member becomes involved and connected, both Rotary and the new member become stronger..
