UPDATE: Bidding for the 2015 RI Convention

16 cities were invited to bid. Only those cities can bid; it will be another seven to eight years before RI will send out invitations to our region again. The bids are due August 15th. RSCVA is putting together the bid proposal for us. In November, RI will narrow the candidates down to three to five cities. In January, RI will send out site inspection teams to those cities. In March, RI will announce the 2015 host city for the RI Convention. Keep your fingers crossed.
